

The Child Development Programs and Services (CDPS) mission is to provide high quality, diverse early care and education programs and services, offered through qualified professionals, that provide environments, opportunities, and foundations for individualized education, emotional, social and physical growth and development. Child Development Programs & Services administers, coordinates and delivers early care and education programs to children and families throughout Butte County.

The CDPS Children's Centers include 9 preschools serving over 400 children throughout Butte County with two options available on the Ridge.

These Children's Centers provide early care and education for children in a fun, enriching, supportive, culturally-diverse setting. Our facilities are licensed and state-regulated, and maintain high standards for quality early childhood education.
